Amendment approved by 10th Department Meeting on March 18, 2009

Publication approved by 6th Department Meeting on October 12, 2005

- Article 1 The Department of Electrical Engineering (Group B) (hereafter the “Department”) founds the Blossom Garden Scholarship (hereafter the “Scholarship”) in order to award the Ph.D. students in the Department for their outstanding achievements in research and publications.
- Article 2 The application requirement and procedure of the Scholarship are as follows.
- (1) The Ph.D. students in the Department who publish or are accepted to publish their papers, as an affiliate of the Department and as the first author other than their Ph.D. thesis advisors, in SCI-listed journals during their Ph.D. study in the Department are qualified to apply for the Scholarship.
 - (2) The Scholarship is open for application in the first semester of each academic year for the papers published or accepted for publication in the previous academic year.
 - (3) To apply for the Scholarship, submit your application form with all the required supplementary documents to the Department Officer. The required supplementary documents are (a) the first page of the paper, which includes the author list, author affiliation list, journal number, journal title, and publication month/year, and (b) the copy of the inquiry webpage of ISI Web of Knowledge, which provides the Impact Factor of the journal. For the paper that is accepted but has not been published by the journal, provide the acceptance letter instead of Item (a).
 - (4) The maximal award per paper is 5,000 Taiwan Dollars, and the maximal number of awarded papers per Ph.D. student per academic year is 6. The exact amount of award for each application is considered and approved by the Department Meeting.
- Article 3 All qualified applications will be considered by the Department Meeting, and the approved award list will be announced after the Department Meeting.
- Article 4 These regulations will be implemented after the approval by the Department Meeting. The same shall be applicable to any amendment.
